

to, two and too

The lady went to the shops.

Bobby loves chocolate
and Sam does too.

Here are two sweets.

piece and peace

The blue piece of string is longer than the green.

Rosie wanted peace!

be and bee

The bee landed on the flower.

“Will you be quiet!!”

new and knew

Robert had a brand new car.

The pirate knew where the treasure was.

right and write

She must write her name on the form.

Name

$$3 \times 8 = 24$$

“That’s the right answer!”

through and threw

The cat went through the cat flap.

They threw the ball.

hole and whole

There was a hole in the fence.

Ellis ate the whole pizza.

are and our

There are nine planets
in our Solar System.

This is our class pet.

see and sea

I use my eye to see.

The boat is on the sea.

no and know

There is no way down!

I know oranges are orange!!

morning and mourning

The sun rises in the morning.

The lady is in mourning.

great and grate

Alexander the Great.

Grate the cheese onto the bread.

I and eye

I am very hot.

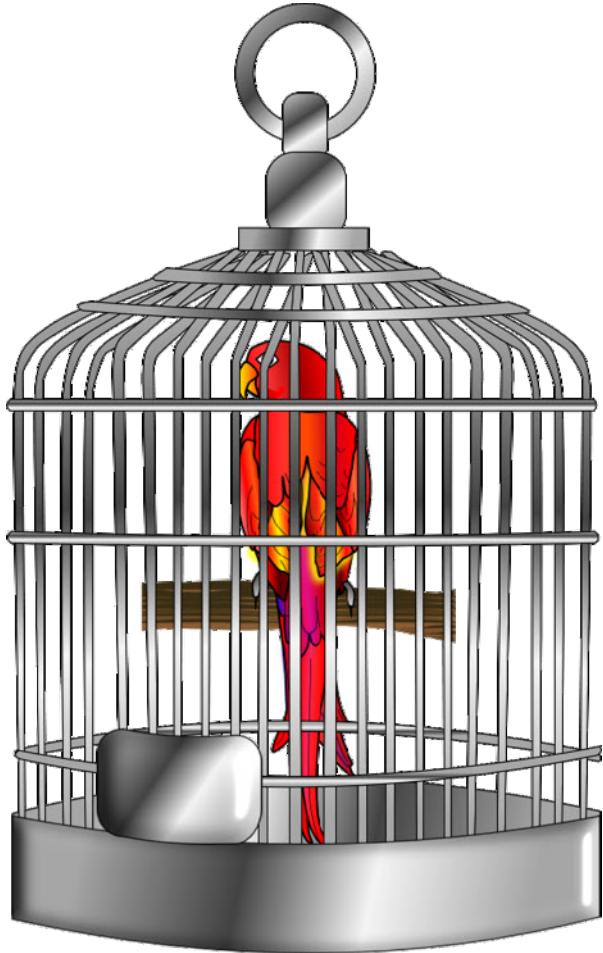

The pirate had a patch
on one eye.

in and inn

The bird is in its cage.

The inn looked old and dirty.

heard and herd

She heard footsteps in the dark.

The herd was in the field.

might and mite

I might dye my hair green.

A microscope was needed to see the mite.

place and plaice

The Sahara is a hot place.

“I like plaice, but cod is better.”

for and four

The ship had four sails.

She took the dog
for a walk.

you, yew and ewe

A ewe is a female sheep.

A yew tree.

“Will you meet me at 6?”